Detailed Directions and Instructions

Preheat the Oven

Preheat your oven to 375°F (190°C).

Prepare the Baking Dish

Grease a muffin tin or any small baking dish to prevent the gratins from sticking.

Slice the Potatoes

Thinly slice the potatoes into even rounds, approximately 1/8 inch thick, for uniform cooking.

Layer the Potatoes

Start layering the sliced potatoes in the greased muffin tin. Stack them to form mini gratins, ensuring to fill each cup.

Add Cheese

Sprinkle shredded cheese between the layers of potatoes and on top of each mini gratin for extra flavor.

Season the Layers

Season each layer with salt and pepper. You can also add herbs or spices of your choice to enhance the flavor.

Pour Cream

Pour heavy cream over the layered potatoes until just covered. This will help create a rich and creamy texture.

Bake the Gratins

Place the muffin tin in the preheated oven and bake for about 30-35 minutes, or until the potatoes are tender and the cheese is bubbly and golden.

Let Cool

After baking, let the mini stacked potato gratins cool for a few minutes in the tin before carefully removing them.

Serve

Serve the gratins warm as a delicious side dish or appetizer.

Notes

Potato Variety

Use a starchy potato variety, such as russets or Yukon golds, for the best texture.

Cheese Options

Feel free to experiment with different cheeses, such as Gruyère, cheddar, or a blend for varied flavors.

Make Ahead

You can prepare the gratins ahead of time and refrigerate them before baking. Just increase the baking time if baking from cold.

Serving Suggestions

These mini gratins pair well with meat dishes and salads, making them versatile for various meals.
