### Ingredients:

- 8 bratwurst sausages: The backbone of this recipe, these sausages are flavorful and juicy.
- 8 slices of cheddar cheese: Adds a rich and creamy flavor to the brats.

- 8 slices of bacon: Wraps the brats in a deliciously crispy layer.
- 1 tbsp olive oil: Helps with crisping the bacon during grilling.
- Wooden skewers soaked in water: Essential for securing the bacon without burning on the grill.
- Optional toppings: Sauerkraut, mustard, or relish for additional flavor.

### Instructions:

1. Preheat your grill to medium-high heat: This ensures the brats cook evenly and the bacon crisps up nicely.
2. Prep the brats: Make a slit down the center of each bratwurst, taking care not to cut all the way through.
3. Add the cheese: Insert a slice of cheddar cheese into each slit, nestling it into the bratwurst.
4. Wrap it up: Take a slice of bacon and wrap it around each cheese-stuffed brat. Secure the ends with the pre-soaked wooden skewers to prevent the bacon from unwrapping during grilling.
5. Brush with olive oil: Lightly brush the bacon with olive oil to enhance its crispiness.
6. Grill: Place the brats on the grill and cook for about 15-20 minutes. Turn them occasionally to ensure even cooking and crispy bacon.
7. Serve and enjoy: Serve these brats immediately with your favorite toppings like sauerkraut, mustard, or relish. Enjoy the rich blend of flavors and textures!

to prevent the bacon from burning before the brats are fully cooked.

- **Cheese alternatives:** Feel free to experiment with different types of cheese. Colby Jack, pepper jack, or mozzarella are also excellent choices.

### Suggestions:

- **Pair with sides:** Serve alongside classic BBQ sides like potato salad, coleslaw, or grilled corn on the cob for a complete meal.

- **Beverage pairings:** These brats pair wonderfully with a cold lager or a crisp apple cider.

- **Vegetarian option:** For a veggie twist, use plant-based sausages, vegan cheese, and plant-based bacon.
